A photograph showing three large, black, cylindrical water storage tanks arranged in a row on a concrete foundation. The tanks are situated outdoors on a grassy hillside. To the left of the tanks, there is a small, light-colored, conical object. A black metal frame is positioned in front of the leftmost tank. A blue hose is connected to the rightmost tank. In the background, there are utility poles with wires and a cloudy sky. The foreground consists of dry grass and a concrete curb.
