MESSAGE

Examination is a face of any university and a quality parameter to appraise its performance. It takes a university beyond its physical boundaries as it has to cater to the students who are scattered far and wide and closely knit in the society in which they live. They are not a homogeneous group but they come from diverse backgrounds and economic strata. Their requirements are not uniform. The examination processes have to meet all the requirements of these students which our present examination system does.

The examination is the priority of our university and every effort is put in place to match its quality with the examination systems of any national centre of excellence. It possesses all the quality human resource and physical infrastructure required.

The University of Kashmir in tune with contemporary requirements follows the curriculum and models framed by the academic bodies at the national level. In the first our University switched over from its annual pattern of Examinations to the semester system and subsequently introduced Choice Based Credit System. Additionally Skill enhancement courses were also added to the course structure. All this has been done in a very short spell of time. These academic reforms have not only added workload to the system manifold but occasionally created administrative as well as infrastructural hassles that have been addressed on priority. It is heartening to see that in spite of given hard situations in the alley, the Examination Wing has tried its best to uphold the national standards in this regard. Being a premier institution of the state the University has a very large catchment area and conducting examination in very distant parts which even remain cut off from headquarters for several months is a huge task. The University is preparing for NAAC Accreditation process and among others our Examination Wing is coming up with its profile of activities which highlight the main features of the Wing and its activities.

I am hopeful that this Examination profile will play its vital role in the accreditation process of the University and help the University to earn a respectable rank.

MESSAGE

Evaluation of the students' academic performance through examination has been an accepted old age method but it has evolved over the period of time. Its procedures have considerably changed both in form and nature. The inoculation of ICT in the examination system has made further positive strides in it.

The persons at the helm in the university of Kashmir to man the examination services are abreast of the newer methods of examination and they have drafted examination policy accordingly. The examination policy in the University of Kashmir follows standard operating procedures currently in vogue in the highly reputed national institutions of higher learning.

A credible and robust system of examination is in place which is well equipped with qualified human resource possessing impeccable integrity supported by quality physical infrastructure. A full-fledged separate examination block dedicated to the student service is manned by a sufficient number of officers and officials. A state of art automation cell serviced by well qualified system engineers is integrated as a support service to the examination.

The profile presents examination related statistical details of the students of all the courses offered by the university from different parameters with an object to provide readers of different interests a complete and comprehensive document not only for evaluation of university performance in relation to student service but also to cater to the policy planners of diverse profiles to abreast themselves about the present status of qualified human resource for effecting future roadmap.

It gives me immense pleasure to present before the readers this profile which encapsulates different facets of examination related statistical details from 2014- 2018. It is hoped that this profile will prove a fruitful guide to the academic planners and government officials to craft academic and developmental plans based on these statistical details relating to human resource trained by the university of Kashmir to take the reins of our state and elsewhere. It will be equally helpful to the researchers of different fields interested to know qualification profile of our students and to those who are interested to appraise performance levels of the students of different strata.

ADMINISTRATIVE MANAGEMENT OF THE EXAMINATIONS

OVERVIEW OF EXAMINATION MANAGEMENT

The examination and results are the final outcome of teaching – learning process in the university. All efforts are made to establish the examination system and strengthen the same in a manner that it is more efficient and student friendly. The bench mark of credibility; transparency and efficiency have been maintained in all examination processes without fail. The examination has been institutionalized at all levels in most organized and systematic manner.

Physical Infrastructure:

The University has housed whole examination system in an independent spacious building sprawling over huge land mss equipped with all the required modern facilities. All the officers have separate offices with internet, intercom, telephone and computer facilities. Each office has separate long size rectangular rooms with officials sitting in a hierarchical order making it a perfect arrangement of office management.

The examination building is annexed with large size evaluation halls for evaluation of answer scripts of different semesters as and when required. The building is also housing a full-fledged multipurpose automation cell which is well equipped with systems loaded with desired software with Internet facility manned by system engineers, programmers and data Entry operators sufficient to facilitate online end to end processes.

The facilities for typing and printing of question papers of all the courses have been put in place in the safely guarded Secrecy Section of the Examination building.

Examination Management:

The Examination management is headed by a full time Controller of Examinations who has experience in Academic Administration and Examination. He is assisted by a large number of able officers and officials, who work with scientific division of labour without any overlap of the profile in order to avoid waste of labour and to enforce efficiency for which the following specialized sections have been created.

1. Automation Section

Automation Section housed in the examination building performs multifaceted tasks and functions as a support service for examination related activities. The use of information & Communication Technology (ICT) in the examination processes has ushered in flexibility and efficiency in it. The Automation Wing comprising of team of engineers with large base of hardware infrastructure and indigenous software platform which control and administer the web based network system linking colleges and students with the university;

2. Conduct of Examination Section:

The University has a mandate to conduct examination of UG non-Professional (private/regular), UG Professional, PG Non Professional (private/regular), PG Professional, Diploma, Certificate and Pre-PhD courses for which three separate sections, independent of each other in the administrative arrangement, have been established under the overall control of the Controller of Examinations.

There are three separate sections looking after PG, UG, and Professional courses offered by the University. Each section is headed by the Assistant Controller of Examinations who supervises the Sections for effective conduct of different examinations in and outside the University spread over the large number of examination centres of Kashmir, Ladakh regions and in some pockets of Jammu region.

3. Secrecy Section:

The Choice bases Credit System has increased the workload of the examination management manifold which necessitated divisions of Secrecy Section in to two Units named as Secrecy I & II. In order to maintain sanctity of the Examination, Secrecy Sections have to be manned by the persons of integrity and probity. All the processes involved in Secrecy of Question Papers have to be efficiently managed for which chosen personnel have been posted in two Secrecy Sections. These sections are headed by the Assistant and Deputy Controller of Examinations.

4. Evaluation Sections:

Evaluation Sections have been divided into three Sections of PG, UG and Professional with a mandate to receive Answer scripts from various examination centres and to arrange their evaluation. Each evaluation section is headed by the Assistant Controller who coordinates evaluation at different centres and maintains its record. A separate Section is maintained for re-evaluation of the Answer Scripts if the candidate is not satisfied with the first evaluation. This Section consolidates all the online applications submitted for re-evaluation and ensures re-evaluation of the Answer Scripts in a time bound manner.

5. Tabulation Section:

The evaluation section forwards result data to the tabulation section which is headed by the Assistant Controller (Tabulation). This section consolidates result awards of all the courses and verifies them before submitting for processing of result.

6. Certificate Section:

The Certificate Section is supervised by the Assistant Controller of Examinations who has a team of officials assisting in preparation and dispatch of degree certificates to respective colleges or Departments as the case may be.

7. Accounts Section:

The University as a matter of policy to attract efficient and careful paper setters and evaluators provides a token of honorarium to all those associated with examination processes. To ensure timely payment and to observe financial rules strictly, an Accounts Section has been established for maintaining examination accounts, headed by the Assistant Controller (Accounts) who is assisted by a team of officials who are proficient in examination accounting.

8. Transport Section:

The examination Section is supported by a good number of vehicles of different description that are used to ferry Answer Books to different examination and evaluation centres. The University also keeps vehicles ready from common pool as and when asked for to ensure timely delivery of Question Papers to all the Examination Centres spread over far and wide.

9. Examination Sub- offices at Leh and Kargil:

The student of Ladakh region (Leh & Kargil) have to negotiate inclement weather conditions and they remain isolated from rest of the world for more than six months as the road traffic remain closed and air service become unaffordable.

The two examination sub-offices, one at Leh & other at Kargil are operating from respective satellite campus manned by local officers and officials. The students of these regions are provided examination related services at door steps and all the grievances relating to examinations are addressed there.

The examination schedule of the students of this region is separate and devised in such a way that it suits to their climatic conditions.

Examination Processes

The examinations process for all the PG course offered by the University are being conducted by the respective PG departments, including the evaluation process and submission of marks awards (Internal/External) online.

The Examination of professional courses which include (MD/MS, MBBS,BDS,BUMS and B.E/B.Tech are conducted as per already fixed academic/examination calendar and the candidates are able to complete their degrees in a stipulated time period.

At under Graduate level where the enrolment is large and is running in lacks, the examination and evaluation process has been decentralized among the stake holders so that processes are spread over all the affiliated colleges for the purpose of conduct and evaluation. The process of examination starts with the submission of forms that are made available online. Once the preparation of paper setting is complete the link for online submission of forms is opened for fixed period, wherein the students have to fill up and submit the details regarding the subject stream to choose combination of subjects. On the basis of number of candidates' subject wise in each college, the statement of examination centres is prepared and notified on the university Website while ensuring that students are able to take examination in their own college/Institutions.

Since the University has switched over to CBCS based semester system from 2016 academic session, the candidates are facilitated to select subject stream and opt for electives courses (Skill enhancement subjects) well in advance with a grace period for even changing the stream/optional subjects. Admit cards are downloaded by the students online reflecting the details of subjects opted by them. The datasheet is scheduled in such a way that lesser number of teaching days are lost in a year for conduct of semester examinations. Efforts are also made to start the examination in the afternoon so that faculty is able to take classes in the forenoon.

The evaluation of answer scripts is a major challenge which involves both time and manpower. In order to save the time and cost in transit of answer scripts the university has designated various nodal colleges in the valley and established Sub offices in Ladakh and Jammu divisions. On every day of examination the centre superintendents deposit all the answer scripts in the concerned nodal colleges for further process of evaluation. The evaluation process is initiated simultaneously from the second day of examination so that results are declared in a shortest possible time.

As per the evaluation policy the answer scripts are assigned to the teaching faculty in a manner that no examiner evaluates the answer scripts of the students enrolled in his/her college. The awards prepared by the evaluators are submitted online to the university through the IT Cell of the college evaluators created by the university. The same process is being followed by all the nodal colleges and sub offices after cross checking the awards with the answer scripts.

Once the evaluation starts in all the subjects/colleges the marks obtained by the students are made available on the university website so that the students come to know about their evaluation status.

The university has introduced an objective component in the end term examination at UG level with 40% weightage. The students are given exposure of attempting, Multiple Choice Questions on OMR Sheets so as to make them familiar with the system of competitive examinations.

The scanning of OMR Sheets starts along with the evaluation of descriptive answer scripts immediately so that evaluation of both subjective as well as objective component is completed together and the students are able to know the composite score in each subject in which he/she has appeared.

For submission of external/internal practical awards and the theory awards the colleges are required to complete the process before the last date fixed for the purpose so as to declare the result as per the examination calendar.

The result notified is issued and put on University website with a facility to download the details of subject wise marks by the candidates.

Students Grievance Redressal Mechanism

1. A robust practice of re-evaluation has been put in place at PG level. Where a student is not satisfied with the evaluation of his/her Answer Scripts, he/she can sit with his/her teacher concerned for clearing any doubt in evaluation. If a student is not still satisfied, he/she can approach to Dean of the Concerned Faculty who will constitute a committee of three teachers for re-evaluation of the Answer Script of the candidate concerned.
2. Evaluation status detailing therein the marks obtained subject wise is made available on the University website much before the official declaration of the result.
3. Feedback Forum link has been created for students so that they can lodge any complaint or seek information regarding any process of examination. Feedback or complaint so received is responded back within a week with the relevant instructions/procedures for resolution of the problem. Majority of cases are being resolved instantly on receipt of query.

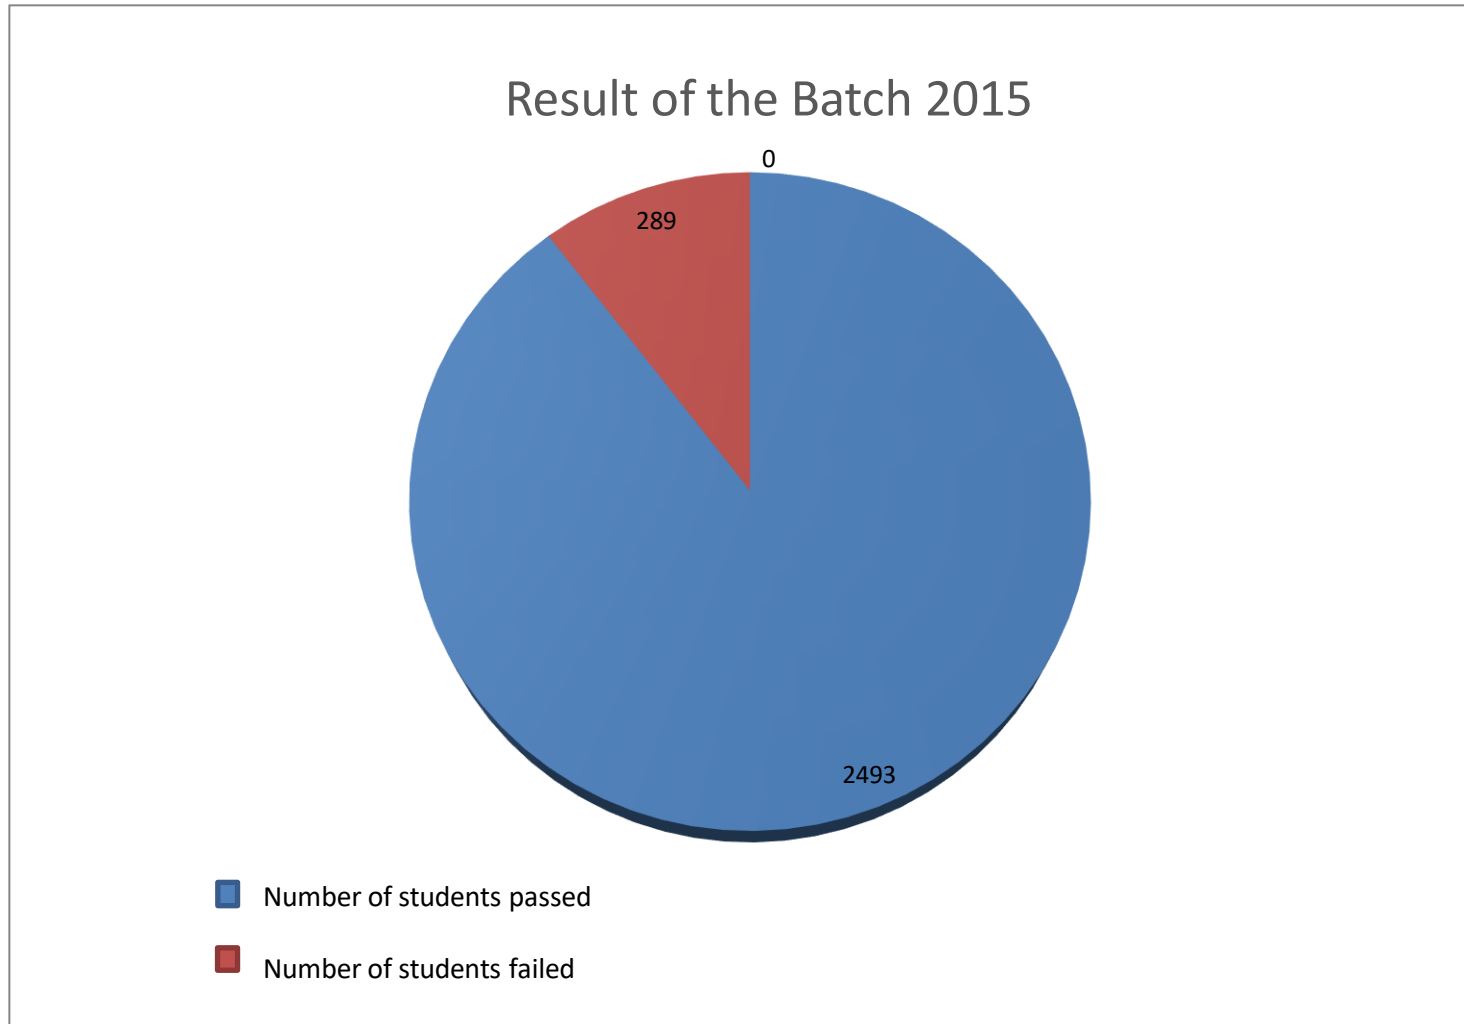

4. The examination wing has established its separate Information-cum-Grievance Redressal cell within the examination block where four operates are working on the student counters for attending students complaints for their timely resolution by the concerned section.
5. Besides satisfying RTI requirements, the examination wing is providing photo copies of answer scripts to UG Students on payment of prescribed fee. The students after receiving the photo copy can clear any doubt if he/she has with the concerned officer in the examination wing.
6. All the students interested in re-evaluation of Answer Scripts can apply for the same after paying nominal fee within the prescribed period.
7. Where the students, while appearing in the examination, feel that the question paper is outside the prescribed syllabi, they can represent and bring the same to the notice of Controller of Examinations who seeks opinion from the subject expert which is being followed in letter and spirit.
8. Access of students to University officers for redressal of their grievances are facilities without any hassle.
9. The student's grievance/Complaint lodging is facilitated at college levels also for the benefit of students of far off places. Their cases are after wards forwarded to the concerned officials of the examination block for redressal.

Best Practices:

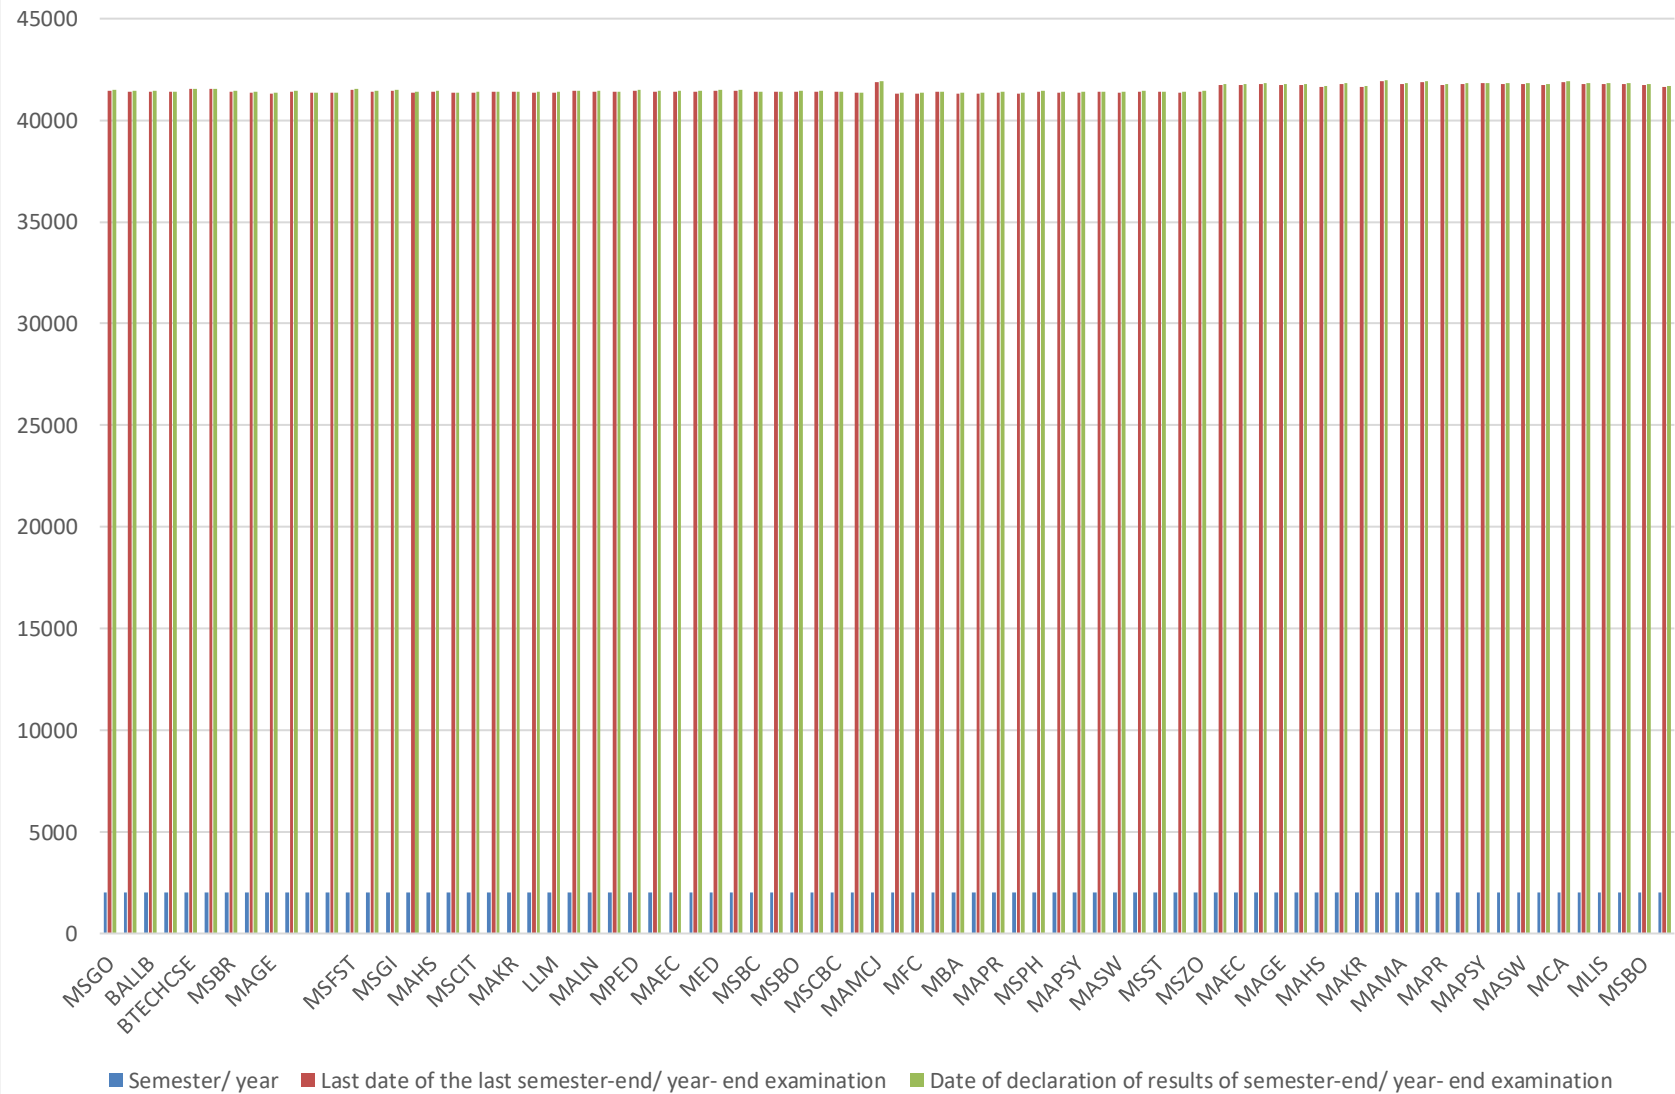

1. The transcript and degree certificates are prepared on glazed papers with highest security parameters which make these valuable papers fire proof, water proof and tear proof.
2. Nominal examination fee is charge from the students which makes whole education cheap and affordable.
3. Technology intervention in all the processes in the academic life span, from student entry level up to his/her exit level, is made possible through online mode which has brought credibility and transparency in all the processes through which a student has to pass.
4. No examination fee is charged for orphans, differently abled persons. The fee concession for the poor students especially girl students is also given.

5. A network of Data Entry Operators connecting university with all the affiliated colleges has been created by posting University Data Entry Operators at Govt. Degree Colleges for feeding students information in the main database.
6. The ambient atmosphere for female employees working in the examination has been provided and there has not been a single complaint of sexual harassment or otherwise of the female employees against any male officials working in the examination wing.
7. All the female employees get child care leave, medical leave or any other leave whatever is due to them without any administrative hassle.
8. The examination section has good drinking water facilities sufficient to cater to the needs of all employees posted in different sections.
9. The separate washrooms for male and female employees posted in the examination wing and the visiting students have been hygienically maintained.
10. All the computer systems have been provided UPS and whole examination is provided with power back by 200 KV Generator set so that the examination related work which is electricity dependent goes on without any interruption.
11. The use of ICT in all the examination processes has been facilitated to keep students well posted about examination related matters. Not only traditional print and electronic media like radio and TV but also digital media like electronic notice board, e-mail, WhatsApp, SMS are used to keep the students well posted about the examination related matters.
12. Whole examination block is provided with wi-fi connection that connects all the systems without any hassle.
13. Access to differently abled persons is facilitation in the ground floor and they can approach, 'May I HELP DESK' outside as well as inside the examination block for any assistance for registering any complaint.
14. A close network of College Principals and their examination coordinators has been created with the help of ICT to keep them posted about any decision taken in the university regarding changes in existing policies related to academic or examination matters.

Library

The history of Kashmir University Library dates back to 1948 with the inception of "University of Jammu and Kashmir". It was established to cater to the academic and research needs of the scholars, students and teachers of University of Kashmir. With the split of the erstwhile Jammu and Kashmir University in 1969, the collection of the library was shared by the libraries of two Universities Viz., University of Jammu and University of Kashmir.
